Project-Based Knowledge Management

A practical approach to managing Organizational Knowledge

Chuck Tryon is a nationally respected educator and popular symposium speaker. He founded Tryon and Associates (www.TryonAssoc.com) in 1986 to provide seminar training and consulting that helps organizations and individuals develop predictable and repeatable approaches to modern project management, knowledge management and business requirements. The strategies presented in Mr. Tryon's seminars are used by thousands of professionals in hundreds of organizations across the United States, Europe and Canada. His client list includes many top 100 companies.

Chuck has authored 10 multi-day seminars and is working on several new writing projects. He is a frequent speaker at Project Management Institute meetings and symposiums across the country. Chuck also serves as the coordinator and moderator for the annual Knowledge and Project Management Symposium (www.kipanet.org) that is held each August in Tulsa.

Chuck and his wife, Tresa, reside near Tulsa, Oklahoma. When not working, Chuck tries to find time for his favorite things in life, spoiling his grandchildren, golf and SCUBA.
