Presenter:

Traci Duez

Prior to starting her own company in 2006, Traci Duez had 17 years of project management. Her projects ranged from starting up a consumer products testing laboratory to managing a global twenty-six site Y2K upgrade for a large pharmaceutical company. Traci previously managed an IT consulting firm and directed over 100 consultants while working closely with the PMO to achieve a CMM Level 3 rating. She has a bachelor's degree in chemistry from Case Western Reserve University (Cleveland, OH) and is a certified coach. Today, Traci is a sought-after speaker in the PMI community and has been invited to speak at multiple PMI Global Congresses. She provides education, coaching and workshops to project managers, executives and their teams. Her work focuses on the new scientific discipline of neuro-axiology and how you, as PMs, can use this information to bring infinitely more value to your projects.
